Aged just seventeen, Billie Eilish has been one of the hottest singers in popular music. This American singer’s artistic talent can’t be denied. She writes her own songs and performs them to audiences around the world. Her music videos show her creative vision. Although they’re often full of dark and disturbing images, they convey a feeling of fun at the same time.

Apart from the music, something special about Billie Eilish is her unusual fashion sense. Unlike many other pop stars, Billie does not try to look sexy. In fact, she goes out of her way to create the opposite effect. While many of her peers are in the habit of showing as much skin as possible, Billie always wears loose-fitting clothes that hide the figure underneath. She claims she does this on purpose, so the media, critics, and fans can focus on her music instead of gossiping about her physical features. She prefers to avoid looking “girly,” so she wears oversized clothes that are equally suitable for males or females.

Eilish also designs her own clothes and sells them under her own fashion label. Not surprisingly, you won’t find a lot of pink or other soft “pretty” colors in her designs. In a complete break with traditional ideas about suitable colors for girls, Eilish prefers to shock instead with bright, flashy colors and bold “in-your-face” designs. Hip-hop culture has had a definite influence on her unusual style. Although the visual effect is certainly powerful, it might be a bit too much for your grandmother’s conservative style.

Without doubt, there’s nothing conservative about Billie Eilish. She’s proud of this, and she is happy to be a role model for young women who want to “break the mold” and express their true identities. Her huge success shows many girls are willing to accept her idea.
